KBIS

KBIS is proud to have been providing horse insurance for every type of horse owner since 1986.

At its outset KBIS was a specialist bloodstock insurance provider, nowadays our product range has grown but we have kept the company focus on providing specialist insurance and can now offer most types of Insurance associated with the Equestrian lifestyle and business.

Sponsorship

Here is just a little of what we have been up to recently...

This year has seen our first foray into eventing with the purchase of KBIS Starchaser. He is being trained and ridden by the up and coming young rider, Izzy Taylor. In his first season KBIS Starchaser has shown himself to be trainable and talented and we all look forward to following his career.

We also sponsor the British Eventing JRN series, which gives our talented young riders such good experience as they develop their skills.

KBIS continues to sponsor the British Dressage Para Dressage Championships. We have been involved with this series for over five years and each year sees the standard of riding increase.

After two years of sponsoring the BSJA Amateur and Veteran Championships we have just signed up to sponsor the hugely popular BSJA British Senior Novice Championships.

We round the sponsorship year off at Olympia with the prestigious Horse of the Year Awards for Dressage, Eventing and Showjumping along with an afternoon speed class.

What's New

KBIS now has an office in the Republic of Ireland and is able to provide a number of its specialist products to Irish customers. It has been an exciting time and everyone in our offices is looking forward to delivering our excellent customer services to our newest clients.

We are happy to announce three new products to KBIS:

- Insurance cover for all types of property, we can provide all the cover you need for your house and stables in one combined policy.
- A personal accident scheme, designed to cover you for serious accidents or when you can't work.
- Our first Industry scheme! We are able to provide a total insurance package for the Farrier and Blacksmith including cover for Liability, Stock and Vehicles.

Elsewhere, those of you who are members of British Eventing will be aware that the last two years have seen a high level of abandonment due to the wet summers. This has left British Eventing with no choice but to outsource the Underwriting for Event Abandonment and KBIS are delighted to help the sport by being able to provide a competitive scheme, which has been adopted by the Association.

Staff

We are well aware that you want an efficient and friendly service when you are arranging your insurance. We try to keep this in mind when considering who we employ at KBIS, we have always been committed to taking on people who have worked with horses, vets or when its more appropriate, are experts in their own fields.

We are proud to say that our team is made up of people who have evented, show jumped and ridden dressage at the very top level alongside others who have worked in the veterinary industry before moving to Insurance.

When we have needed people with insurance experience we have recruited candidates with over 15 years experience in the relevant sector. We do this so that you can be confident that the person you speak to knows what they are talking about and what concerns you.
